ACADEMIC SESSION
2014-16

M.Sc. (Environmental Sciences)
MBA (Rural Development)
Dear Student’s

As the Vice-Chancellor of Himachal University, I wish to highlight our principle which has always served the academic world with discipline, thoroughness, distinction and dedication. The Institute of Integrated Himalayan Studies, established in the campus of Himachal Pradesh University, has achieved “Excellence Plus” as envisaged by the UGC. Many strategies have been evolved for the development of Himalayan region and its people. The Institute is following the principal of inclusive growth in all its programmes and policies. The Institute is not only undertaking integrated research based on the needs of Himalayan region through dedicated teaching, encouraging pursuit of knowledge but also serving as a source of information, and a centre for employable skill development in the Himalayan region. Besides research activities, the Institute is making serious efforts to preserve the rich cultural heritage of this region. The favorable environment of the university enables the students to acquire knowledge and skills required to meet the challenges of modern world.

I wish that the students who get the admission, and complete their degree contribute in a big way to the well being of Himalayan people.

Prof. A.D.N. Bajpai

Vice-Chancellor
Director’s Message

Dear Student’s

Ever since its inception, the Institute has nurtured a dream to achieve ‘Excellence Plus’. The mission of the Institute is “to create an integrated knowledge base and evolve strategies for the development of Himalayan region, its people through research, academic courses and service with a global perspective.” Research is undertaken in biological, physical, socio-cultural and economic & political aspects of the Himalayan region and is strengthening the knowledge base, relevant to Himalayan region. Presently the Institute is running a number of multi/inter-disciplinary courses which includes M.Sc. (Environmental Science), MBA (Rural Development), Master of Fine Arts (Pahari Miniature Paintings) and Post-Graduate Diploma in Disaster Management. Besides these some more courses such as Master in Public Health, Certificate Course in Counseling, Master in Archeology, Master in Hindi Journalism, Master in Human Rights and Duties and Master in Defense and Strategic Analysis.

One of the important achievements of IIHS during the year 2013 has been the visit of UGC expert committee to Institute for reviewing its progress over the years. The committee comprised of expert members renowned in their own fields. The members were highly impressed by the progress and the work undertaken by the Institute pertaining to academic, research and extension activities. The committee not only appreciated the work of IIHS but also stressed upon the need to continue its activities. The committee further recommended to the UGC to provide substantial financial assistance to IIHS. The Institute is highly obliged to UGC for sanctioning further grant of Rupees seven crores for continuing its mandate and objectives.

Prof. Rajinder S. Chauhan
Director
IIHS: An Introduction

The Institute of Integrated Himalayan Studies (UGC Centre of Excellence) was established in the Himachal Pradesh University, which is located in Summer Hill in Shimla in the lap of magnificent North-Western Himalaya. It was set up vide notification No. 9-42/2002-HPU (Genl.) dated 1.4.2002 and hence came into existence with effect from 1st April 2002. As per UGC directives, the Institute has academic, administrative and financial autonomy for achieving "Excellence Plus". The salubrious climate and congenial atmosphere in Shimla is ideally suited for research and for the establishment of such an institution. The mission of the Institute is:

"to create an integrated knowledge base and evolve strategies for the development of Himalayan region and its people through research, academic courses and service with a global perspective”

The Institute is striving to serve the people of the Himalayan region, the nation, and the world through integrated and comprehensive research, teaching, training, and service. The Institute aims to undertake integrated research, based on the needs of Himalayan region through dedicated teaching, encouraging pursuit of knowledge and serving as a store house of information, and a centre for employable skill development. The Institute is intended to dedicate/ commit its activities to societal welfare while following the dictum of excellence in the whole ambit of its activities.

Objectives of the Institute

To act as a nucleus of academic and research activities in Himachal Pradesh University and region by way of creating an enabling environment for sharing resources and skills.

- To conduct academic courses including short-term certificate and diploma programmes and long-term program leading to Ph.D. in interdisciplinary fields
To undertake academic programme and capacity building activities for developing employable skills.

To generate primary data to be utilized by various departments and agencies of the Government.

To collaborate with Government and Social institution in its endeavor to realize its mission.

To undertake research leading to the formulation and implementation of suitable policy for inclusive development of Himachal Pradesh

To build an integrated knowledge base of socio-cultural, economic, political, physical and biological resources

To cater to the informational needs of stakeholders by developing state of the-art library and documentation centre, an information exchange system, archives and museum and bring out a series of publications on themes relevant to Sustainable Development in the state.

To help Himalayan people to improve their quality of life through gaining information on new discoveries, initiation into new technology and imparting of employable skills.

To organize national, regional and international seminars, workshops, training programmes, conferences in the thematic areas identified by the Institute from time to time.

Thematic Areas of Research

- Natural Resource Management and Sustainable Development in Himachal Himalaya
- Socio-Cultural and Economic Dimensions in the Development of Himachal Himalaya

Location

The Institute of Integrated Himalayan Studies is located within the premises of Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla. The University campus is located at a distance of 5 km from Shimla town. Shimla, named after the goddess Shyamala Devi and summer capital of the British Raj, is the capital city of Himachal Pradesh. Shimla is popular tourist destination and is often referred to as the "Queen of Hills". It is located in the north-west Himalayas at an altitude of 2,128 meters. The city of Shimla, draped in forests of pine, rhododendron, and oak, is famous for its buildings styled inner-gothic architecture of the colonial era. The city is connected to Kalka by one of the longest narrow gauge railway routes still operating in India. Shimla is approximately 115 km from Chandigarh, the nearest major city, and 365 km from New Delhi, the national capital.

Academic Facilities

Occupying an area of nearly 200 acres, the University has well-equipped laboratories and large library. There is a cyber café with internet facility, accommodation for teaching and non-teaching staff, separate hostels for girls and boys, large auditorium, a branch of SBI, canteen, post-office, health center and good transport facilities. Besides this, the Institute has its own Infrastructure consisting of following:
